This is Our Home Now

Wednesday 18th November at 2.30pm
At Bedford Central Library

Artist, Josepa Munoz, presents her new work, giving voice to displaced people throughout the world. She interweaves true events about the refugee struggle with a mountaineer's story in diary form from The Pyrenees in modern times, and remembering 1940 interrupted with other tales of exile and displacement.

Come and enjoy the performance and find out where the story is going next.
